If you are relocating to Dubai from another country, the experience can be a roller coaster of emotions. Without the help of reliable international movers, the tasks at hand may be quite overwhelming even more so if you're relocating to Dubai with family.

To rid yourself of the stress of packing and handling all your belongings, book an international moving company now. There's only so much you can manage yourself anyway.

International Moving Checklist When Relocating To Dubai

While the international movers handle the packing and moving, here are a few things you need to check off your list in the meantime.

1. Sort Through Your Personal Belongings

Sort out the items you want to take with you and sell or place the rest in storage. Decluttering can do wonders when it comes to packing and unpacking not to mention that it also cuts back on your shipping cost.

neighborhood. It is recommended that you have all of this sorted before relocating to your Dubai home.

5. Get Your New Home Ready

Whether the walls are screaming for a fresh coat of paint or you want a new shelf installed, now is the time to get that out of the way. You can also book a professional deep cleaning company to make sure your new house is spotless before you move in. Usually, the cost of doing this is borne by the landlord, so ask to make sure these are done by him/her before you move in. You can also get competitive quotes from ServiceMarket for these services.

6. Transfer Your Driving License

Depending on which country you got your driver's license from, you may be able to immediately transfer that to a UAE driver's license. You can check if it is transferable on the RTA website. If it is not, you will need to complete several driving lessons and pass a local driving test. There are several institutes you can register with including Emirates Driving Institute and Belhasa Driving Center.
